DUBLIN CITY ATTRACTIONS

DUBLIN CASTLE

Dublin Castle is the heart of historic Dublin. In fact the city gets its name from the Black Pool "Dubh Linn" which was on the site of the present Castle Garden. Dublin Castle Tourist Facilities are under the management of the Office of Public Works. The State Apartments, Undercroft, Chapel Royal, Vaults Restaurant, Heritage Centre and Craft Shop are all open to Visitors.

TRINITY COLLEGE DUBLIN

Trinity College is the oldest university in Ireland. Founded in 1592 by Queen Elizabeth 1, the College is in an enviable position in the very heart of Dublin and in 1992 celebrated 400 years. The college is famed for the great treasures it has the honour to be guardian of. These include the Book of Kells, a 9th century illuminated manuscript. The books of Durrow and Armagh and an early Irish harp. These are displayed in The Colonnades exhibition Gallery and the Long Room which houses over 200,000 of Trinity's oldest books.

GUINNESS STOREHOUSE

THE ADDRESS

CITYWEST

Set in the centre of one of the world's most famous breweries, which has been on site since Arthur Guinness founded it in 1759, the Guinness Storehouse has rapidly become Dublin's "must see" visitor attraction. The Guinness Storehouse is a dramatic story that begins over 250 years ago and ends in Gravity, the bar in the sky, with a complimentary pint of Guinness, and an astonishing view of Dublin.

THE OLD JAMESON DISTILLERY

The Old Jameson Distillery in Smithfield Village is in the heart of Old Dublin. Irish whiskey can trace its history back to the 6th century. Almost like a tour of a working distillery you can follow the fascinating craft of whiskey making. Finally the tour culminates in the Jameson bar for a traditional Irish whiskey tasting.

SHOPPING

Dublin provides the ideal setting for shopping, offering the visitor a wonderful array of products from traditional Irish handmade crafts to International designer labels. Why not experience the hustle and bustle of Henry Street or take a leisurely stroll down the trendy and demure Grafton Street or even sample the unique mix of colorful outdoor stalls and exotic shops of Temple Bar.

NATIONAL HISTORY MUSEUM OF IRELAND

This museum of museums is famous for its Victorian cabinet style, which houses one of the world's finest and fullest collections' still to be seen today. Two million species, of which roughly half are insects, live side by side with, appropriately for a natural history museum, decorated and sculptured panels depicting mythological figures. This zoological museum encompasses outstanding examples of wildlife from Ireland and the far corners of the globe, some to be seen today and others long extinct.

E

ELECTRICAL CURRENT

The electrical current in Ireland is 220 volts.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

Please familiarise yourself with the floor plan routes which are located on the rear of the bedroom door. The plans are designed for each individual room and clearly outline all emergency escape routes from your location.

F

FIRE ALARM ACTIVATIONS

Across the hotel (including your bedroom) there are a series of smoke, heat and gas detection systems which are built into the ceilings. Should these systems identify smoke, increased levels of heat or a source of gas a warning siren will be activated in the area in which the alert has identified as the siren will communicate directly to our management and staff, who will immediately investigate the alert.

In the event of a fire:

1. Raise the Alarm by breaking the glass of the Break Glass Unit.
2. If it is decided to evacuate the premises, the warning will be given by the continuous sounding of the fire alarm.
3. Upon hearing the fire alarms leave the premises immediately by the nearest exit and assemble at the designated Assembly Point at the Hotel.
4. Please close all doors and windows when leaving the room.
5. DO NOT USE THE LIFTS.

For those with impaired hearing or disabled in anyway, there is a card hanging on the door handle which

GREEN HOSPITALITY

Working towards a gold award best practice

The Address Collective is proud to be a member of Green Hospitality and working towards certification. The Green Hospitality Programme is a Type 1 Eco-label as defined by the International Standards Organisation (ISO) “a voluntary, multiple-criteria based, third party programme that awards a licence that authorises the use of environmental labels on products indicating overall environmental prefer ability of a product within a particular product category based on life-cycle considerations”.

Green Hospitality is an Irish designed and managed hospitality environmental certification programme and is supported by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the tourism sector in Ireland. Certification is awarded in a stepped approach; Eco-label (Commenced), Silver Award (Good Practice), Gold Award (Best Practices). For more information visit www.greenhospitality.ie

The Address Collective strives to continually monitor, enhance and review our environmental goals and objectives in order to reduce our environmental impact as part of our ever evolving ESG programme.

We are committed to seeking out best practice and procedures that can assist us in reviewing our water and energy consumption along with our output of waste and carbon emissions.

We are also committed to finding innovative ways in which our activities can enhance our guest experience in the hotels.

Our objectives in this regard are:

- To comply with and seek out best practice on national and local environmental regulation with a focus on:
  - People Management
  - Health & Safety
  - Human Rights
  - Environment procedures around consumption and output.
- To place environmental performance as a critical success factor in our business and add the relevant KPI's for consumption and waste to our management KPI's for overall business performance. This continual review and action model will enable us to enhance our performance with the following targets being set
  - Carbon Emissions Decrease 5% annually
  - Water Consumption Reduced by 5% annually
  - Waste reduced by 5% annually
- Through our ESG programme and “Green Team” we will identify areas for innovation, creativity and enhancement by seeking out and implementing best practice as relevant to our operations.
- Actively enroll in and aim for success in the Green Hospitality Award programme.
- Embed environment, ethics and community into our induction programme while re-training existing personnel on any new procedures, innovations and projects introduced.
- Educate our customers in a clear, positive and simple way around their role in our minimising environmental impact when using our facilities.
- Have regular and consistent reporting structures that provide our owner with sound information on our performance benched against our goals and the activities planned each quarter.
- Commit through our procurement policy to work with and source suppliers to reduce environmental impact and ensure our suppliers adhere to our commitment to corporate social responsibility.
